25 YEARS OF BRF

Established in February of 1997, the Breathing Room Foundation was founded by Diane and Bernie Fitzgerald as a response to the overwhelming support received from their family, friends, and the community that surrounded them during Diane's six year battle with cancer

"As my wife waged her battle with cancer, I witnessed first hand the destruction of this disease. During that same time, I witnessed first hand the comfort of care. With each diagnosis, as cancer attacked her breast, lymph nodes, lungs, spine, and brain, there were the gifts. Diane, our children, and I were the recipients of so many gifts. With each gift we heard the words 'I care,'" shared Bernie.

"We were in a battle between care and disease. This battle did not start with us. Others before us waged such a battle, and it does not end with us. I ask you to join me with this foundation because I assure you I am not done fighting."

For 25 years, BRF has supported individuals and families in their fight against cancer. It has grown from serving three recipients in 1997 to more than 1,500 in 2022 and over 15,000 during those 25 years. Yet the mission remains the same: to provide individualized care and support to families affected by cancer by addressing their most critical needs so that they can concentrate their efforts on regaining their physical health.

BRF has grown from a small non-profit organization, known for helping with lawncare and house cleaning, to a leader in cancer support care for the Philadelphia area, driving systemic change in the fight for equitable access to care through our transportation program. We have kept our focus on supporting individuals and families by meeting them where they need support the most, listening to their challenges, and responding with the outstretched hand of a caring friend represented in our logo.

Breathing Room works every day to make sure that no family is alone in their fight against cancer - that they hear, as Bernie did 25 years ago - that 'I care,' about the individual, the family, and their fight against cancer.

LEGACY OF LOVE

Remembering Diane Fitzgerald, even for those of us who weren't lucky enough to know her in life, is to remember a force of nature.

The tremendous legacy she left when she created BRF highlights the determination and grit that she showcased as a coach, a mother, and as a friend, and are familiar traits to many in their fight against cancer.

Diane and her husband Bernie established BRF two short months before she passed away, using the last weeks of her life to give back to others. Her legacy continues to thrive and grow, highlighting the impact a single individual can make by rallying others around a shared vision.

For the past 25 years, her vision, "to improve the lives of families affected by cancer by ensuring that no one feels alone in their fight," has impacted thousands of people through the work of the Breathing Room Foundation.

Diane's vision of a foundation that would offer support to neighbors fighting cancer has given so much to the Philadelphia community over the past 25 years. Diane's oncologist, Dr. Mike Spiritos, spoke at this year's golf outing and asked those gathered to "live our lives as Diane and Bernie did: accept what you cannot change, absolutely find the best in everyone that you meet, and give more than you are given."

Breathing Room does not work to cure cancer; we work to serve others in their fight. We offer the space and support that Diane received during her cancer treatment: moments here and there to be with family, to be relieved of a stressful task, and to simply breathe.

We are grateful to everyone who has ever made a donation, volunteered for BRF, or shared in the work of BRF by serving families in our community affected by cancer. We are grateful to Diane and Bernie, for their heroic vision as they faced personal tragedy.

And we are grateful that Diane's enduring legacy continues to offer others the same grace, respect and care that she experienced during her six-year battle with cancer.

from the executive director

Dear Breathing Room Foundation Supporters,

As we celebrate 25 years of Breathing Room, we are filled with gratitude for the community that has so generously embraced our mission and shared in our work. Your gifts, volunteer hours, and support have helped lift the load for our cancer-fighting community and given “breathing room” to families as they fight.

This core message at the heart of our work, giving cancer-fighting families space to navigate their diagnoses, treatment, and often, their grief, by taking little things off of their plates, is the reason BRF continues to resonate with so many people. While cancer treatments and outcomes look different today than they did 25 years ago, the same care, compassion, and outreach that assisted my sister Diane in her battle are vital for those fighting today.

Diane is the inspiration behind the Breathing Room, the driving force keeping us laser-focused on growing our community of helping hands. When she founded BRF 25 years ago, none of our wildest dreams could have imagined the number of lives that would be touched by this organization. More than 15,000 local families have been impacted by BRF, with financial support, individualized care, and the helping hands of community members like you.

This staggering number of recipients is matched only by the number of people who support BRF. We are so grateful for every supporter, for every volunteer, and for every donor who has assisted BRF in our mission. We are grateful that our recipients have allowed us to offer them help in their fight against cancer. And we are grateful for Diane, for the work she inspired, and for her legacy, which lives on 25 years later.

Our work is far from done. The need continues to increase, and we have grown every year to meet the rising needs of cancer patients and their families. Our newest program, Breaking Barriers, is a key example of a growing need: providing transportation to life-saving cancer treatments for recipients. Access to treatment is the number one barrier to care for cancer patients - and we are working to give everyone equal access to the care they need.

Programs like Breaking Barriers highlight the growth of BRF, the continued need of the cancer-fighting community, and the adaptability required to serve the recipients we work with. We work directly with social workers in our referring partner locations to build trust and serve as a reliable resource for the cancer-fighting community. We continue to hear from social workers, recipients, and oncology staff that we are a reliable, accessible resource for so many - and that we are a driver of change.

We welcome every patient into the BRF family, regardless of their background, culture, beliefs, finances, or home address. In a world that continues to be full of uncertainty, BRF has remained a stable and valued resource for the hospital systems, social workers, and most importantly, local families fighting cancer.

Our goal continues to be to serve every recipient with the same care, compassion, and outreach that Diane received during her battle with cancer, and to honor her with our individualized approach to each recipient. No one should be alone in their fight against cancer, and we will continue to work to remain nimble, adaptable, and responsive to the needs of our community.

Thank you for making 2022 an incredible year for BRF and our recipients. We served more individuals and families than ever before. It was our most successful fundraising year, bringing in new grants and individual gifts that directly impact our recipients.

As we move forward, we will continue to live out the mission created by Diane and Bernie 25 years ago, which is just as relevant today as it was then; and ensure that every family affected by cancer is able to take a breath during their fight and know that they are not alone.

Celebrating 25 years has been an emotional, humbling, beautiful experience - and we are so grateful to all of those that have made it happen. From the donors, supporters, and volunteers who make our programs work to the recipients who allow us into their lives, we are so thankful for you.

Here's to the next 25 years of Breathing Room!

BRF OPERATIONS

Cancer is “one of the most expensive medical conditions to treat in the United States.” When coping with cancer, families are at their most vulnerable, and necessities like food, shelter, clothing, and maintaining a normal home life for children are often at risk. BRF reduces financial toxicity by addressing the families most immediate financial need at the time of referral. This can include payment of a utility bill to avoid shut-off, groceries, gas to get to treatments, or a partial rent payment.

meeting basic needs

323 Recipients received $62,158 worth of groceries in 2022.

139

139 Recipients received nutritional supplements, totaling $18,107 in 2022.

147

147 Recipients received housing/utilities support, in the amount of $28,609, in 2022.

Children's Programs

We concentrate a large portion of our efforts on ensuring the children impacted by cancer, through their own diagnosis or that of a family member, continue to have positive childhood experiences. We offer annual programs that provide Spring/Easter baskets, Holiday gifts, uncooked Thanksgiving dinners, personalized school supplies, and other child-focused support throughout the year.

Year of Service

Once a family is referred to BRF, they are eligible to receive support for an entire year. This support is individualized to each family's specific needs but often includes deliveries of home-cooked meals and groceries, comfort items, medical supplies and equipment, diapers and wipes, and snacks for the children.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS TIMELINE

Spring

Spring/Easter

We provided more than 300 children with Spring and Easter baskets this year.

Summer

The BRF Thanksgiving program provided meals for 1,000 individuals.

Winter

Holiday

In 2022, we supported more families (231) and individuals (973) than we have ever been able to before for the holiday program.

"Thank you for everything you and your foundation have done for my children and me the past few months. It has meant the world to me, and I could not show enough appreciation. Your foundation is amazing and I pray and hope that I can one day give back and help another family out! You really take big burdens off of us during the treatment process and being out of work."

- Courtney R., single mom of three kids, thanking BRF for her 2022 Easter baskets as she battles colon cancer.

THE BRF SERVICE AREA

We are firm believers that if there's a family in need, we should be able to help, which is why we have a low-barrier approach to support eligibility. To be eligible to receive BRF support, recipients need to be referred by a social worker or other healthcare professional and must be in active cancer treatment. There is no minimum or maximum income criteria.

Impact for a Family

"I wanted you to know how much the Breathing Room has changed our lives. We had no candles for the Hannukah menorah and no Christmas tree until you guys came into our lives. The kids were absolutely speechless when they saw how many gifts had their names on it. I finally felt like I hadn't failed them as a mom. I hate having to miss out on so much of their lives being sick and you provided me the opportunity to enjoy being a mom with my children for the holidays. My heart is filled with the utmost gratitude for all of the volunteers and donations. The Breathing Room made our holidays magical.

When I got my diagnosis this past August, the docs said if they hadn't caught it when they did, I wouldn't have made it past the holidays. Your organization made the holidays everything a child could ever dream of.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for making these holidays so special. I am eternally grateful."

-Lisa

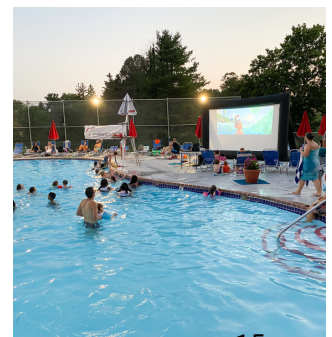

Celebrating Community & Event Fundraising

For 25 years, Breathing Room has been supported by the local community, beginning with the neighborhood of its founding, Jenkintown. The original fundraiser of the "Backyard Fair," held literally in the backyard of founding board members homes, set the stage for what would be a quarter century of event-based fundraising.

We have cycled through many iterations of community engaging fundraisers, always with the dual priorities of raising money to benefit BRF recipients while simultaneously celebrating the community that has supported the BRF mission. From the Backyard Fair to the Celebration of Life, we are so grateful for every dollar raised, every friend brought to an event, and every participant.

In 2022, we dialed in to three major fundraisers - the BRF Golf Outing, the Toast to 25 evening event, and the Valley Road Run. Additional third party fundraisers like the new Cornhole Tournament and Abington Family Fun Night brought in added funds for BRF families. We are so grateful to the committee members, volunteers, sponsors, and attendees who made each of these events a success.

2022 BRF Golf Classic

Played again at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, a mix of old and new faces included golfers participating in their 24th outing, and golfers playing for the first time in support of BRF.

The winning foursome for Wissahickon was Fraser Gallagher, Graeme Munro, Will Tomey, and Nevil Tull.

The winning foursome for Militia Hill was Steve Krzywicki, Chris Chaves, John Jim, and Matt Raniszewski.

Winners of the longest drive were Joe Jordan (Militia Hill) and Brian Wojtko (Wissahickon).

Closest to the hole were Mark Dolphin (Militia Hill) and Rich Bates (Wissahickon).

ADDITIONAL 2022 HIGHLIGHTS

BRF Receives Bristol Myers Squibb Grant: Bristol Myers Squibb announced a grant to BRF of $300,000 to grow the transportation program, known at BRF as “Breaking Barriers,” which provides rides to treatment for cancer patients. This new funding is part of the Bristol Myers Squibb $150 million global investment to address health disparities, increase clinical trial diversity, expand supplier diversity, increase workforce representation, and enhance employee giving in support of social justice organizations. BRF has provided critical assistance to our recipients who need access to their life-saving cancer treatments.

25th Anniversary Partners: Lincoln Investment and Jefferson highlight the importance of community partnerships by serving as our 25th anniversary partners in celebration of the Breathing Room Foundation's 25 years of service to those fighting cancer throughout Philadelphia and surrounding suburbs.

Cheltenham PD and Target host 'Shop with a Cop!': the Cheltenham Police Department and the Cheltenham Target invited some of our BRF recipient families to 'Shop with a Cop' at the Cheltenham Target, and provided hundreds of dollars in gift cards to each family. We are so grateful for the generosity of these officers, who met our families at the BRF offices, drove them to Target, and spent hours shopping with them.

Sauers Cares Sponsors New Kitchen:

Sauers Cares is an organization that supports other local nonprofits that provide a direct benefit to some or all members of our community. They selected BRF as the 2022 recipient of their Muscle Up Against Cancer car show fundraiser, which raised more than $45,000 for the renovation of our kitchen space, taking us from a dated kitchen without a working stove to a beautiful space with brand new appliances and cupboards full of groceries ready to go out to recipients in need. Cindy's Suppers, a long-time staple of BRF programming, returned as a result of this renovation. This program offers BRF recipients the opportunity to be treated to a night out at BRF, with a meal cooked by volunteers, and served in our dining room. We are incredibly grateful to Sauers for their recognition of BRF's work in our community, and the incredible time, talent, and funding they spent to make our kitchen a beautiful, practical, and usable space to benefit BRF families.

School Partners Step Up Again: In addition to the thousands of individual donors and corporate sponsors that support Breathing Room each year, our local schools have always embraced the spirit of serving the local cancer support community. From the youngest children in elementary school to teams from local colleges and universities, we are incredibly grateful to the students, teachers, administrators, and support staff who participate in food drives, sponsor families for the holidays, deliver packages, and spread the word about BRF.

THANK YOU, DONORS!

Because of your generosity, Breathing Room has provided support to more than 15,000 recipients over the past 25 years. In 2022 alone, more than 1,500 recipients received financial assistance, comfort and care packages, children's programs, nutritional supplements, medical supplies, and transportation to life-saving treatment. More importantly, they knew they were not alone. The messages of hope, the gifts delivered to their homes, and the care from strangers made an immeasurable impact. Thank you.
